Head of the River: Wilderness Girls School staged a miraculous upset beating the previously undefeated Walford crew in the girls' First VIII at the prestigious Head of the River schools regatta on Saturday.

Walford had won the Florence Eaton Cup for the past five years and was hot favorite to win again but Wilderness defied the odds to beat Walford by 2.84 seconds and win the cup for the first time while Pembroke was third.

St Peters College denied Prince Alfred College The Advertiser Shield-Goss Shield double by winning the boys' First VIII six seconds ahead of Princes with Pulteney Grammar School third.
