

Hewitt picks a winner

LLEYTON Hewitt picked a good time to bring girlfriend Bec Cartwright home for the weekend. Not only did his beloved Crows wallop The Power, he also had a great view of the Head of the River rowing regatta on Saturday from his lounge-room window. Hewitt's Adelaide home is one of the select few along the lakefront which backs onto the rowing course. Pictured is St Peters College rower Wil Jeffries enjoying his crew's win in the First Eights Final with some of the lakefront homes in the background.

messenger - April 2005